We go the distance to serve you.

Jason Jordan has played a key role at Ross & Associates Insurance Services, Inc. as a commercial insurance producer for over ten years, with a specialized focus on business insurance needs for the hospitality & craft brewing industry. As a former chef and graduate of the Culinary Institute, Jason takes great pride in providing insight and knowledge to prospective business owner clients.

Jason brings a wealth of knowledge and practical insurance experience to the table allowing him to serve his clients business and personal insurance needs. He has been a licensed Property & Casualty agent for over ten years and holds a Life & Health license as well.

Jason has recently joined the Oregon Brewers Guild and is a dedicated associate member seeking to forge relationships with brewery owners, providing them with a hands-on, consultative approach toward their current business insurance needs and exposures. He has also recently joined forces with an educational small business development instructor volunteering his insurance knowledge to clients seeking the skills needed to start a successful business.

Outside of the office, Jason is active in the community as a certified foster parent for DHS. He enjoys coaching his children's sports teams and competing on indoor and outdoor soccer teams in the Portland area. He has also joined the Oregon Brew Crew (one of Oregon's oldest home brewing clubs) in hopes of learning how to create and enjoy his own home brew.
